

What Is the CVIM Foundation?

We are the Crescenta Valley Instrumental Music Foundation, also known as "CVIM", or "The Foundation", a 501(c)(3) non-profit, tax-exempt charitable organization that supports the musical education of the student music groups of Crescenta Valley High School's Instrumental Music Department. We are the parents of CVHS instrumental student musicians, and we provide essential volunteer and financial support to the Instrumental Music Department at CVHS and its Instrumental Music Director, Mathew Schick, throughout each school year.

CVIM Foundation Parent meetings take place on the 2nd Tuesdays of the month (but not in December) during the school year at 7 PM in the Music Room, room 3102. Please join us! Meetings are open to all Instrumental Music parents. You will receive the most current information available for all CVHS Instrumental Music concerts, fundraisers, and special events, as well as detailed updates on all music classes and activities from the Instrumental Music Director.

To maintain its current level of success and competitiveness, the CVHS Instrumental Music Department relies on the success of the CVIM Foundation. In order to maintain a successful CVIM Foundation, we need support from the parents of Instrumental Music students and the community.

Here are just some of the many ways that you can support CVIM by volunteering your time:

- Attend the monthly CVIM Foundation Parent meetings and become involved
- Volunteer to help at, and/or donate to our Fall and Spring fundraisers
- Volunteer to help at Instrumental Music concerts
- Join, or become a leader for a service committee
- Volunteer to chaperone the many music events – football games, competitions, and festivals
- Donate food, snacks, baked goods, beverages, and/or bottled water to our many music events
- Volunteer to tow the CVIM trailer to football games, competitions, and festivals

Please also consider voluntarily contributing to CVIM financially, by doing the following:

- Attend the many CVHS Instrumental Music concerts throughout the school year
- Register your Ralph's Club Card with Ralph's Community Contribution Program - choose "Crescenta Valley Instrumental Music Fund" as your Community Contribution Organization
- Shop online at Amazon Smile, making CVIM's Foundation your designated organization
- Dine with us at one of our CVIM "Dine Out" night fundraisers
- Attend our Fall and Spring Fundraisers
- Purchase an ad in our annual POPS concert program
- Buy and sell See's Candy during the holidays
- Buy baked goods at concerts
- Give a voluntary tax-deductible contribution directly to CVIM

If you have time to volunteer, please consider sharing some of that valuable time with us and become involved with the Instrumental Music program at CVHS. Please also consider making a voluntary financial contribution during the school year. We rely on parental involvement with both to be successful annually.

Who is CVIM? YOU are CVIM!
