Positive and Negative Consequences

Here's what happens when you perform well:

- Early dismissal
- Longer or more frequent breaks

Here's what happens when you mess-up:

Multiple issues: Monday detention

- Lateness: Your time late will be doubled and you will have to stay after school for that time and perform various tasks. (i.e. clean up band room, put away stands/chairs, etc.) Excessive lateness will result in additional physical activity on Fridays.
- Misunderstanding of rules
 - verbal warning (only one per rule)
 - push-ups
- Gum, spitting, food: 15-50 push-ups
- Marching mistakes: verbal warning, meeting with officer for clarification
- PDA: verbal warning, excessive PDA will result in a meeting with Mr. Schick and parents
- Lack of materials: 15-50 push-ups
- Violation of respect: apology at council meeting to ensure officers of YOUR understanding of the offense.
- Push-ups will cap at 50 per day. Other consequences will follow if you pass cap

Officer Rules

Officers are held to higher standards because they administer most of the punishments listed above. In addition to these consequences, officers may receive the following reprimands:

- Double push-ups, push-ups cap at 75
- Mandatory council apology
- Severe or repetitive offences will result in an impeachment trial

Band Camp Dress Code

- No open-toed shoes, sandals, or flip-flops (shoes must have support) while on field.
- Shorts are suggested, but if you wish, loose fitting jeans are ok.
- School dress-code rules apply
 - No sagging pants, spaghetti tops, tube tops
 - Any issues with dress will result in you being asked to change to something more appropriate
