

Greetings!

Welcome to the 2012 Crescenta Valley High School Instrumental Winter Concert. Tonight, our goal is for you to sit back and forget about the messy kitchen, the busy day tomorrow, the laundry that's been piling up, all the holiday gifts still not purchased, and the busy upcoming weekend. Our goal is for you to look beyond the things that get in the way of enjoying this time of year. We all loose focus with the immediate importance of the one thing in front of us when in reality, we should take a step back and enjoy the moment.

Tonight, the moment began when you walked through these auditorium doors and sat down. Please use this opportunity to live in this moment and leave everything else in the car so that you have a chance to truly focus and enjoy listening to these amazing kids make music. Remember, these are the same kids that leave their things all around the house, don't make the bed, forget to text/call, and roll their eyes whenever you try to talk to them. Let them take you on a journey through the Holiday Season as they perform music chosen to both challenge them and to get you in the spirit of why the Holidays are important to us.

I believe that the Holidays give us a chance to reflect upon our beliefs and ideals, which give us strength to move forward in spite of all the little things that get in the way. We are given a chance to look at the big picture as we move into the New Year refreshed and ready to move forward.

So sit back and allow us to take you to a place where you can relax, recharge, and enjoy the wonderment that only 270 talented and remarkable High School musicians can offer.
Happy Holidays!
